U-BOAT O. H. S.

In the fall of 1936, nineteen inexperienced sailors joined the crew of U-Boat O. H. S., which was under the command of Admiral Mock. Three ensigns were transferred from other elementary ships, namely Ensign Felton from S. S. Indianapolis and Ensigns McDaniel and Stewart from S. S. Castleton. Ensign Stewart was later retransferred to S. S. Castleton. Vice Admiral McLaughlin, who was also new to the U-Boat, was assigned to us as our commanding officer. Crew officers were Rear Admiral Trittipio and Captains Hausafus, Smith, and List. We met the usual criticism and ridicule from the older ensigns, but we bravely attacked our new subjects. We enjoyed several parties in spite of the upper crew's interference. We were glad to sail home for the summer furlough.

In 1937, we boarded the U-Boat with more confidence; for we were no longer in the limelight of ridicule from the upper crew. During our long furlough Ensigns Perkins, Harting, and Horton found life easier elsewhere, but our number was raised to sixteen with the appearance of Ensign Phelps, who was transferred from S. S. Technical. Bruce was selected as our Vice Admiral, with Rear Admiral Reynolds and Captains Trittipio, Smith, and McConnell as crew officers. All subjects were attacked with fairly good success, and we had ample time for several enjoyable parties. We were proud to see Rear Admiral Reynolds' name on the Plaque.

In 1938, we were destined to be again under the command of Vice Admiral McLaughlin. Ensign Miller was transferred to S. S. Technical during our furlough. As crew officers we chose Rear Admiral Trittipio and Captains Reynolds, Smith, and McDaniel. It being a custom for the ensigns in our rank to give the graduating crew a reception, we set about to make money. Besides selling candy all year, we launched a terrific paper drive, which enabled us to give the upper crew a fine reception at Indianapolis. We attacked our newest foes, typing and shorthand, vehemently. We were proud to have Ensign Phelps receive the Plaque Award. We ended the season very successfully, though we do believe that there was some sabotage in connection with our candy counter.

In 1939, the largest transfer of all took place. Admiral Mock was transferred to S. S. Lawrence, and Admiral Callaway greeted the undecided crew of U-Boat O. H. S. He and Vice Admiral McLaughlin took over the difficult task of sponsoring us. Watson is our Rear Admiral, with Captains Huntley, Smith, and McDaniel. During our furlough Ensigns List and List were transferred to S. S. Advance, and Ensign Fields was transferred to our U-Boat from S. S. Castleton. Our motto is "Always lead, never follow". Our flower is the Rose, and our colors are Rose and Silver. We took shore leave to attend a party at Rear Admiral Watson's. We also held a blow-out in the torpedo room, with most of the higher-ups attending. We are now scuttling along towards commencement, with Captain Huntley and Admiral Callaway following in a row boat. (No six-footers allowed on a submarine!)

As our class draws nearer our ultimate goal of graduation, we find ourselves smaller and smaller in number. As Juniors, we are nine. We welcomed this year, Emily Fields from Castleton. For a few weeks, Patricia Downtain was with us. What we lack in number, we try to make up in energy, effort, and enthusiasm (and, in our own opinion, we succeed!).

To all activities, we make contributions—we include band members, basketball players, yell-leaders—Yes, and we are the only class who can boast a 100% membership of our girls in our newly organized Girl Reserves. As salesmen of magazine subscriptions, Christmas cards, and candy, we have been very successful.

We've also, had our share of fun. December 5, we most thoroughly enjoyed a theatre party given by our sponsor, Mrs. McDaniel, at which we both saw and met in person, Lum and Abner. Our Christmas party at the school building December 15, was a success.

As this goes to press, we see many more good times ahead. There's only one worry clouding the horizon—they say we must give the Seniors a reception! Well, we're the ones who can do it!!

The good ship "Oak" has at this time brought us through the second leg of our Senior High School journey, sponsored by Mr. Craig. Captain Reynolds with his assistants; Smith, Hay, and Parker have done well, always following and enforcing the rule "A quitter never wins and a winner never quits".

Roy Money boarded the ship this year and brought the crew total to fourteen. This group is now looking forward with great eagerness for the greater privileges and responsibilities that come when we start on the third leg of our journey next year.

We, the Freshman class, fourteen in number, entered Oaklandon High School in September. To make our entrance official we were initiated at a wiener roast given by the Seniors. In spite of the initiation we enjoyed ourselves very much.

So far we have enjoyed a skating party at Riverside. A short time later we had a class party, all members of the class attended.

Lamar Downtain left us to attend Franklin Township and later Philip Money from Franklin joined our class to make our number fourteen once again.

We have enjoyed being Freshmen and are looking forward to being the future Sophomores.

- 1 Mrs. McDaniel and English nine;
Oh gee! We can't think of a rime.
- 2 The commercial department is shown at the right;
And the Juniors are typing with all their might.
- 3 Miss Apple and her Home Nursing class
Are having baby bathed by a Junior lass.
- 4 High school music is out this year;
From the Junior High comes all we hear.
- 5 Mr. Munger and his instrumental band;
They start to play at a wave of his hand.
- 6 Mechanics, Kinetics, Dynamics, My! My!
Uncanny we say, do you wonder why?
- 7 Traffic cops; they're receiving information
On the prevention of accidents throughout the nation.
- 8 These are the Sophies in History at work;
When under Brunson they seldom shirk.
- 9 Here are the Sophies favored again;
This time it's Bruce and Geometry ten.

- 1 Our cafeteria, to which we rush pell-mell
When Brunson rings the dinner bell.
- 2 Our yell leaders are attractive to some, it seems;
They gained more attention than both of the teams.
- 3 Girls, as well as boys, play ball;
Here they are, Bruce and all.
- 4 A scene from our library is shown next
In which students find many an interesting text.
- 5 Next is our student council ring;
Fine entertainments they did bring.
- 6 Girl Reserves—our new social guild;
Strong minds and characters they try to build.
- 7 Our janitor, John, is known by all;
He keeps clean each room, vestibule, and hall.

BASKETBALL

Shoot 'em high! Guard 'em low!
Yea team! Let's go!

This might well have been the motto of the 1939-40 O. H. S. Varsity team as they completed one of the most successful seasons in recent years. O. H. S. played 17 scheduled games, winning 9 of them. The boys got off to a poor start but came back from Christmas vacation all pepped up and won all but two games, one being lost by only one point. In the County Tourney we lost to Decatur Central and in the Sectional we lost a hard-fought game to Warren Central.

The team consisted of boys from all four high school classes. Capt. Watson, Frazer, and H. Apple proved very efficient in the offensive, while Negley and Hay held down the guardposts in grand style. Each of the four Senior boys received his sweater for his splendid service to the team. A letter was given to Harold Apple for having played varsity basketball two years.

Our Reserve Team won six games out of fifteen hard-fought battles. They really put up a gallant fight and deserve much praise for good sportsmanship. Even though we are bidding goodbye to four senior basketball players this year, we feel sure our reserve team will carry on next year.

Three cheers are given Coach Bruce for his able work, and also to Student Manager Jack Parker.

BASEBALL

We are very proud of our 1939 baseball team. Practically all the boys in high school participated and came through with flying colors. We played six games and won four of them. The other two were lost by just one point. The boys played their first night baseball game against the Alumni at the Fortville Ball Park. They proved they could play a good game, day or night, as we won 5 to 4.

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

- 5—School again, with a new principal, new band leader, and several new pupils.
- 6—School out at noon for the benefit of those going to the Fair.
- 7—We select sponsors and class officers.
- 8—Joe McDaniel and Allen Miller were absent. Sick? Sure, but I bet they can tell you everything about the Fair.
- 11—Juniors choose their class rings.
- 12—Juniors start selling candy.
- 13—Play Castleton in a game of softball. We win 23-3.
- 14—Hot! Cloyd and Orville are absent from physics class. Wonder why? New Junior, Patricia Downtain.
- 15—Too hot for school so we dismiss at noon.
- 18—"Yes, we have no bananas", but we do have a banana tree.
- 19—Today we have some bananas. (What about it Joe M. and Bob B.?)
- 20—And the Sophomores still "don't know nothin'" about geometry. Will they ever? Lost a game of softball to Franklin Twp. 8-7.
- 21—Our high school team plays a night game of softball. Oaklandon High vs. Oaklandon Independents. We win 7-4, in spite of the Independent's sneers.
- 22—Some leave school to see the six man football game between Lawrence and New Augusta.
- 25—We play a softball game with Castleton and win 30-3.
High school girls' team play the fifth and sixth grade boys. (Girls win.)
- 26—Mr. Craig, demonstrating a force pump, sprays Cloyd with water. Accident or is his aim bad?? Orville sits near.
- 27—Mrs. McDaniel passes out (samples of candy) in Literature class! We play a softball game at Franklin, they win again, 8-7.
- 28—Initiate Freshmen at high school wiener roast! Wonder why all the teachers have black faces???
- 29—Recovering from wiener roast while we have monthly exams.

OCTOBER

- 2—Fire drill, all out! Physics class is last, they can't hear the bell.
- 3—Mrs. McDaniel asks for a four line poem from the Freshies. Fredda writes:
"We go to school,

And stay all day,
But it's not our fault,
Blame Callaway."

- 4—Report cards! Ask Lamar D. why June T. blushed in biology class.
- 5—Seniors start selling annuals. (How is Pete N.'s sprained ankle? Ask B. T.) Happy birthday, Mary Fields.
- 6—Everyone stiff from skating last night. Home nursing class has a tea and shower for a sick room.
- 9—Yesterday was Cloyd's birthday. Juniors call ring man back. Why?
- 10—Representative from Porter's Studios is out to see Seniors about annual pictures.
- 11—Imagine hitting a fly with glasses on. Cloyd does and knocks his glasses off.
- 12—Start the Cafeteria. Mrs. Zella Henry in charge.
- 13—Friday 13th! Choose yell leaders. Clest and Veneta win. They have competition in the form of: Carl N. and Dana N., and Doris McC. and Aileen F.
- 16—Pete Negley is limping again. Do you suppose he was invited to another skating party? Ask Dana N. why he blushes. There seems to be an epidemic of blushes.
- 17—'Red' Southern of the New York Yankees and Notre Dame talks to us for an hour. Why are Jim H. and Tom W. always going on strikes?
- 18—Why did Aileen and Doris bring glasses of water to Govt. class?? (Speeches!)
- 19—Senior girls write letters to Orville. Tch! Tch!
- 20—Sent flowers to Orville. Why was Jim Apple so tickled in English class? We wonder and so does he!!
- 23—Why are Veneta, Harriett, Patricia D., Stella, and Emily wearing tape on their fingers?
- 24—Season basketball tickets on sale. We wonder why Pat Phelps blushed so in Literature class.
- 25—Ivy is a capable nurse as long as her patient stays in bed but upon rising Betty T., her patient, pinched her leg. A black mark Ivy. Senior Party at Tom's.
- 26-27—Teachers Convention.
- 30—Yell practice for first game. A talk by Mr. Callaway telling us to YELL if we are going to.
- 31—Hallowe'en! A visit by Castleton girls to our girls club.

NOVEMBER

- 1—First basketball game: Fishers 23-Oaklandon 17.
- 2—We have a new song for "Oak" to the tune of the "Beer Barrel Polka".
- 3—Happy birthday, Aileen Felton. Basketball game with Franklin Twp.
- 6—Franklin Twp. was victor Friday night. We have a Student Council.
- 7—Tom sends Mr. Craig a message to-wit:—"Meet me out at the trash pile after this period."
- 8—Fire Drill, hot stuff! Jim A. finally gets a bag for the Jr.'s money.
- 9—Mr. Bruce says that if we don't laugh at Mr. Craig he won't always be making those silly remarks.
- 10—BEAT LAWRENCE! Will we? Tomorrow James H. grows one year older.
- 13—Why do two Senior boys turn toward the back of the room when the Freshmen are in the study hall??
- 14—P. T. A. meeting. Seniors go to town to get their pictures taken.
- 15—Sophies have a party at Betty Teter's. Girls club is now Girl Reserve Club.
- 16—Seniors get proofs for their pictures. After all, tho', the photographer can't work miracles. Sophies look sleepy after last night.
- 17—Judith Wright and her father entertained us today.
- 20—Freshman party. They decorate the Cafeteria.
- 21—Porter's come out and take pictures. Senior health class goes to Sunnyside. Wonder if that first flip that Harold A. turned when he and Pete were leading the Yells put a bump on his head?
- 22—Out an hour early, Mr. Callaway gives us something to be thankful for.
- 27—Back after Thanksgiving vacation.
- 28—Mr. Craig explains that the brain floats in a fluid, and Clest thinks hers has sunk.
- 29—Harold A. 'Never threw no spit-wads'. Ball game with Speedway City.
- 30—Girl Reserves draw up their constitution.

DECEMBER

- 1—Senior party. Clestiabelle takes spill in typing.
- 4—Teacher turns farmer, gets stuck in furrow.
- 5—Sophies have party. Mrs. McDaniel treats the Juniors to a show.
- 6—Porter's back, take basketball and yell leader's pictures.

- 7—Why does Tom want to walk in where he isn't suppose to be?? He shouldn't follow people so closely.
- 8—First victory of the season—Oaklandon 33-Howe 20!
- 11—Why is Harold A. now called 'waterfountain'?
- 12—Cloyd sits on the chair but ends up on the floor.
- 13—Choose our invitations. Play Castleton tonight.
- 14—Harriett T. thinks all "Do" health questions are emphatically "False".
- 15—Lois Cory informs Orville that she would hate to have him as a daddy.
- 18—Reverend Sizemore gives us an interesting talk on "Learning a Lesson".
- 19—Joe McDaniel has been going up and down the stairs quite often lately. Why??? Do Tom and Orville have anything to do with it?
- 20—Third victory!! Oaklandon 30—McCordsville 23.
- 21—Exams! Nothing else to ponder over.
- 22—High school and grade school present a program celebrating Christmas. Exchange gifts. See you in 1940!

JANUARY 1940

- 2—Exam results and what results! Jim A. spells "Indians" with a little "i" because they were little Indians.
- 3—Professor Steinback visits physics class.
- 4—Cloyd thinks '13' really is unlucky!
- 5—Senior cards arrive.
- 9—Mr. Brunson turns preacher. Proof can be obtained from the girls, seventh to tenth grades.
- 10—Why is Joe McDaniel washing dishes??
- 11—Sophomores and Juniors receive an adding machine.
- 12—Tonight is the night for the Donkey Basketball game.
- 15—What happened to the Donkey Basketball Game?!!! We have had girl cooks in the Cafeteria for some time now. Something must have happened to the mothers. Maybe it's the cold weather.
- 16—Seniors hold an election.
- 17—Tourney tickets on sale. Pat's birthday.
- 18—Out at 3:00 p. m. Oaklandon loses to Decatur Central in County Tourney.
- 19—Too cold! No school.
- 21—Miss McLaughlin lectures Freshmen on conduct!!

- 22—What happens when Hay has a roving eye??? S. N.
- 23—Seniors start work on the dummy. Seventh and Eighth grade team play Lawrence. Overtime game. Results—Oak. 28—Lawrence 30.
- 24—Basketball Banquet.
- 25—Ivy doesn't have enough meat in her chile so she takes a piece out of her jaw. Harold A., by request, left English class. Junie T. was yelling "Blush, blush. Oh, my gosh!" when Frankie picked up her purse. Why June???
- 26—James Huntley wastes an entire hour by reading a funny paper without even cracking a smile. Jim A. substitutes for Clest as yell leader, much to our amusement.
- 29—Yesterday Doris McC. grew a year older. For milk bottles—cheap—see R. C. Callaway. Answer to physics problem 8—Confidentially I don't know anything about this—Result 5% for honesty.
- 30—Did Tom get his piece of candy from the Senior girl???
- 31—Report cards.

FEBRUARY

- 1—Leroy M. has an escort of five eighth grade girls.
- 2—Boys are awarded their sweaters. One Junior boy receives a letter. Game with Castleton postponed because of illness of Castleton's first five. Play Alumni instead and come through—Oak 32—Alumni 28.
- 5—If you want to find Mary J. look for Norma W. and vice versa. They are always together.
- 6—Tom's STILL looking for his piece of candy.
- 7—Jeepers creepers! Are the eighth grade girls really in love???
- 8—Did the Juniors get an answer to their letter????
- 9—Even calling back their reserves didn't enable the Alumni to defeat the Varsity in the scheduled game tonight. They were defeated with a score of: Oak 27—Alumni 26.
- 12—Dorothy S. Doesn't know her own strength—she breaks (?) the window stick.
- 13—If the Juniors sell 'Cokes' who's going to drive and take the ice to McCordsville?
- 14—Ask Jim Huntley how to take curves—and he takes Safety!!!
- 15—Who has Cloyd's typing paper??

- 16—Did that extra lipstick Harriet wore when she took her drivers test make an impression on the policeman who gave the test? Play McCordsville—lose by one point.
- 17—Play Whitestown—win 27-23.
- 19—Everyone's spitting things in the wastebasket—Question: Why? Answer: McLaughlin!
- 20—Cloyd likes to tip back on chairs but he always goes to the extreme and ends up on the floor.
- 21—Information: One way streets have one end while two way streets have two ends.
- 22—Piano bench is minus its legs. Allen M. and Harold A. can supply particulars. Is Harold still crawling or has he learned to walk??
- 23—A vote of appreciation goes to the basketball boys for they played an inspired game tonight—defeating Lawrence by doubling the score. Three Cheers!!!
- 24—Defeat Castleton in the last game before the Sectionals—Castleton 24—Oaklandon 37.
- 26—Powdered sugar marks the spot where someone ate one of those doughnuts!
- 27—Mr. Craig lost his insulator and did he jump??? Ask the physics class.
- 28—Who was the boy friend Harriett left English to see?????
- 29—Leap Year Day!—Look out boys!!

MARCH

- 1—Mrs. McDaniel turns pro on making basketball nets. Oaklandon defeated by Warren 35-28.
- 4—Clestiabelle wonders how she will ever learn her play part—nineteen "You said a mouthfuls".
- 5—Ask Ruth what happened to her yeast. The Commercial Class gave a "little small, one act play" for the P. T. A.
- 6—Clest and Grace turn murderers—they kill their yeast.
- 7—One ball team—lots of ice cream—Mrs. Stoner makes good her "if you beat Lawrence" promise.
- 8—Everybody ate and everybody talked and everybody had fun at the banquet given the basketball boys by their mothers.
- 11—Achievement Contest at Butler. Harriett lost! Was it a man or was she waiting for her diploma?
- 12—Donkey Basketball game tonight! Tense expectancy!!
- 13—Donkey basketball game over! Craig can't think! We go to press.

JOKES

Mrs. McDaniel: "Leroy, name two collective nouns."

Leroy: "A waste basket and a vacuum cleaner."

❖ ❖ ❖

Miss Apple: "I've been cooking for years and never had a complaint; which proves something."

Betty T.: "Sure, dead men tell no tales."

❖ ❖ ❖

Mrs. Settles: "Another bite like that and you'll have to leave the table."

Earl: "Another bite like that and I'll be through."

❖ ❖ ❖

Joe McD.: "I'm like Lincoln, Washington, and Roosevelt."

Bill P.: "How?"

Joe: "I went down in History."

❖ ❖ ❖

Carl N.: "Hey, the ladder is upside down."

Dana: "I know it. I put it that way so that I would be nearer the bottom if I should happen to fall from the top."

❖ ❖ ❖

Allen: "Goodnight! Your car is certainly all smashed up, and you yourself look a fright. Did you have an accident?"

Harold H.: "Naw! I just got out of the way to let that bridge past, and then this tree walked over and hit me, and after that the river jumped up and grabbed me."

Frazer: "I was arrested for driving my car 30 miles an hour."

Cloyd: "But you're allowed to drive 30 miles an hour."

Frazer: "Not on the sidewalk."

❖ ❖ ❖

Betty P.: "James has such marvelous wind that they put him on the basketball team."

Virginia H.: "As guard?"

Betty: "No, he blows up the balls."

❖ ❖ ❖

Doris: "I thought you said you were going to knock that exam cold."

Cles: "Well, didn't I? I came out with a zero."

June: "A tramp with a gun came to my house this morning and made me cook a meal for him."

Fredda: "Man alive!"

June: "Yes, but he hasn't long to live."

❖ ❖ ❖

Miss McLaughlin: "Come here and give me what you have in your mouth."

Harold F.: "I'd sure like to, it's the toothache."

❖ ❖ ❖

Mr. Watson: "I've got a freak on my farm. It's a two-legged calf."

Mr. Stoner: "Yes, I know. He came over to call on my daughter last night."

❖ ❖ ❖

Pete N.: "Are you fond of nuts?"

Bonnie: "Oh, Pete, this is so sudden."
